The Summer Style In HER MAJESTY'S CORSET.

This is the premier of warm weather stays. It is built just as strongly and made just as shapely as any of the regular styles, but its body is of stout netting instead of jean or coutil or sateen, and it is light, airy and comfortable.

No other summer corset is so substantially constructed. No other one is so surely proof against perspiration. No other one

HER MAJESTY'S is, therefore, not only the best of Summer Corsets, but it is positively the cheapest.

POLITICAL NOTES AND GOSSIP.

Col. Winfield T. Durbin, republican can didate for governor of Indiana, spent an hour with National Chairman Hanna at his home in Cleveland yesterday discussing political affairs in that state. Col. While nothing authoritative has yet been made public as to who will be selected to fill the vacancy on the national committee caused by the resignation of George B. The appointment will be made Friday, when the executive committee will meet at Senator Hanna's office.

Republican leaders from all over Kentucky and several anti-Goebel democrats held a conference in Louisville yesterday and decided to have a "hurrah" campaign in Kentucky this year, beginning it by running special trains from all over the state to Louisville on July 17, when the state convention will be held.

Informally the conference decided that anti-Goebel democrats should be invited to affiliate with the republicans, and expressed the opinion that there should be but one plank in the state platform and this one was referred to as "anti-Goebel-Ism."

ALLEGED INJUSTICE.

law Said to Make Distinction Between

Schaffer and Hancock, two of the men infured in the accident which resulted in the death of Martin Niland, a substitute fireman, were appointed members of the department the day previous. Their injury has invited the attention to what is claimed to be an unfair and unjust distinction made by law between the members of the police and fire departments in the matter of pensions. By the act of Congress of June 11, 1886, the Commissioners are directed to de-duct from the pay of the firemen $1 per menth, which sum so deducted is kept as menth, which sum so deducted is kept as a firemen's relief fund. It is invested in United States or District bonds, and is devoted to the relief of "any fireman who, having served not less than twelve months, shall, by reason of injuries received or disease contracted in the line of actual fire duty, while going to, at, or returning from a fire, or having served not less than fifteen years shall become so permanently disabled as to be discharged from the service therefor • • Provided, further, That such relief shall not exceed for any one fireman or his family the sum of $50 per month; and a sum not exceeding $75 may be allowed from sum not exceeding $75 may be allowed from such fund to defray the funeral expenses of any fireman dying in the service of the District."

District."

This act, which is said to be the latest legislation upon the subject, requires a member of the fire department to have been such for at least one year, it is contended, before the Commissioners are authorized to grant him a pension, despite the fact that a fireman may, in the line of actual fire duty, be injured during that period so severely as to permanently inconscitate betweenly as to permanently inconscitate betweenly as to permanently inconscitate betweenly as to permanently inconscitate. duty, be injured during that period so se-verely as to permanently incapacitate him for such duty or for the performance of such labor as might earn him a livelihood. On the other hand, it is claimed, a member of the police force is entitled to a pension when injured in the line of duty, although he may not have been a member of the force twenty-four hours.

On behalf of the firemen it is claimed that in the performance of their duty they run

On behalf of the firemen it is claimed that in the performance of their duty they run as many risks as do the policemen. Indeed, it is contended by not a few that the duty of a fireman is much more hazardous than that of a policeman. Even on a run to a fire the life of a fireman is menaced, and the accident to No. 7 company last week is, it is contended, an illustration of the danger the firemen encounter or are liable to encounter even before reaching the scene of a fire.

But, admitting that the dangers surroun ling policemen and firemen in the performing policemen and firemen in the performance of their duty are equal, it is contended on behalf of the fire fighters that such equality should be recognized when it comes to granting pensions, and that a member of the fire department should not be required to serve one year before he can become en-titled to such consideration, while a policetitled to such consideration, while a policeman becomes so entitled a moment after he is appointed. It is said that it is at times a rather difficult matter to induce men to become members of the District fire department, and it is believed that should every man become cognizant of this alleged distinction in the matter of pensions between members of the two departments it would be far more difficult to secure firemen, especially should the fact that the firemen receive much less pay than policemen be also considered by those intending to apply for appointment.

Just how or why this distinction came to be made by Congress is not known. It is believed to have been unintentional, in view of the fact that by the act of Congress of February 25, 1885, the law relative to pensions of policemen and firemen was

THE WORLD OF SOCIETY ceived or disease contracted in line of duty, or, having served not less than fifteen years, shall become so permanently disabled as to be discharged from service therefor."

therefor."

The question has been brought to the attention of Commissioner Macfarland, who has immediate supervision of the fire department, and if upon investigation he finds that such alleged distinction exists he will recommend to his associates that the Commissioners ask Congress at its next session to so amend the law as to remove such claimed inequality.

Rest, mother, rest,

Four years have passed, but still we miss you
Friends may think the wound is headed.
Little do they know the sorrow
That Hes within our hearts concented.
Mother is not dead, but sleeping,
Resting from life's toll and pain;
Oh, how sweet it is to know
We will meet our darling mother again.
Sleep on, dear mother, and take your rest,
Lean your head upon Jesus breast.
We loved you long, but Jesus loved you best,
And took you to beaven with him to rest.

BY YOUR DEVOTED HUSBAND
